Epic, beautiful song by Grizzly Bear. Had to be converted.

It's super easy but you should pay attention to the order the high e and b strin gs
are played in the tab,
(you would understand by listening as well)

Lyrics

Take on another shift
Palms in the middle, hands in the middle Work out another rift
Something is muffled, another juggle

This is a foreground
It is a foreground

A cross country miss
Take direction, can’t connect it
I’m afraid this is Ten detected, nine in a wreck and…
A little jetty fight
Pattern evolving, motion insolvent
Something about this might Take all evening,
I’ll just be cleaning

This is a foreground
It is a foreground
