

E
If you just walked away
A
What could I really say
C#m
would it matter anyway
A
would it change how you feel

E
I am the mess you chose
A
the closet you can not close
C#m
The devil in you I suppose
A
'cuz the wounds never heal

E
But everything changes
A
if I could turn back the years
C#m
If you could learn to forgive me
A
then I could learn to feel

E
Sometimes the things I say
A
In moments of disarray
C#m
Succumbing to the games we play
A
To make sure that it's real

Nak... solo..

E
When it's just me and you
A
Who knows what we could do
C#m
If we can just make it through
A
through this part of the day

Nak...

C#m
Then we could stay here together
A
And we could conquer the world
C#m

If we could say that forever

A

It's more than just a word

E

If you just walked away

A

What could I really say

C#m

It wouldn't matter anyway.

A

It wouldn't change how you feel
