

INTRO: Am Am Am Am

Am

The rain came down

F

The rain came down

Am G F

The rain came down on me

Am

the wind blew strong

F

and summer's song

Am G F

it fades to memory

Am

I knew you when

F

I loved you then

Am G F

in summer's yawn, now hopeless

Am

you laid me bare

F

and marked me there

Am G F

the promises we made

C Am Em

I used to think, as birds take wing,

F

they sing through life, so why can't we?

C Am Em

we cling to this, and claim the best

F

if this is what you're offering

C Am Em F

I'll take the rain, I'll take the rain

Am

The nighttime creases

F

summer schemes

Am G F

and stretches out to stay

Am

the sun shine downs

F

you came around

Am G F

you loved the easy days

Am

But now the sun

F
the winters come
Am G F
I wanted just to say
Am
that if I hold
F
I'd hope you'd fold
Am G F
and open up inside, inside of me

C Am Em
I used to think, as birds take wing,
F
they sing through life, so why can't we?
C Am Em
we cling to this, and claim the best
F
if this is what you're offering
C Am Em F
I'll take the rain, I'll take the rain
C Am Em F
I'll take the raaaaaaiiinn

G Em

Am Am

Am
This winter's song
F
I'll sing along
Am G F
I've searched its still refrain.
Am
I'll walk alone
F
if given this
Am G F
take wing, and celebrate the rain

C Am Em
I used to think, as birds take wing,
F
they sing through life, so why can't we?
C Am Em
we cling to this, and claim the best
F
if this is what you're offering
C Am Em F
I'll take the rain, I'll take the rain
C Am Em F

I'll take the raaaaaaiinn
C Am Em F
I'll take the raaaaaaiinn
C
I'll take the rain
Am
I'll take the rain
Em F
I'll take the raaaaaaiinn
C Am Em F
I'll take the raaaaaaiinn
