

C G

Thinking back now

F C G

I suppose you were just stating your views

C G

What was it all for

F C G

For the weather or the battle of Agincourt

F G

And the times that we all hoped would last

Am F

Like a train they have gone by so fast

F C G

And though we stood together at the edge of the platform

C G

We were not moved by them

C G

With my own hands

F C G

As I make love to your memory

C G

It's not the same

F C G

I miss the thunder I miss the rain

F G

And the fact that you don't understand

Am F

Casts a shadow over this land

C G C G

But the sun still shines from behind it

Thanks all the same

But I just can't bring myself to answer your letters

It's not your fault

But your honesty touches me like a fire

The polaroids that keep us together

Will surely fade away

Like the love that we spoke of forever

On St. Swithins Day
